The Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital Charity is dedicated to supporting patients and staff to enhance orthopaedic care at the RNOH. It receives and administers donations to fund improvements to hospital facilities, purchase specialist medical equipment, support pioneering research projects, fund staff training and assist in vital projects to provide the best patient care.

Use Gift Aid and make your donation worth more. For every £1 you give to the RNOH Charity we can claim an extra 25p from HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC). To qualify for Gift Aid, you must pay an amount of Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax at least equal to the tax that the Charity, and any other charity you donate to, reclaim on your donations in the appropriate tax year(s).
